NOTES

- New students can proactively visit the photo room to get their student ID card made during both phases.
- For travel convenience regarding new students and parents from distant provinces/cities:
 - If new students and parents have fully prepared the admission documents, the University will support receiving them during Phase 1 (from August 11 to September 11, 2026) at both campuses.
 - If students cannot arrive during the above period, the University will continue to support receiving admission documents while students participate in Orientation Week, Physical Education, or National Defense Education according to the University's schedule.
